PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Marc Pollock's specialty is the representation of property owners for the lease and sale of retail properties in and around Los Angeles, with a primary focus on the positioning of properties to attract national and regional chain retailers. In his 30+ years of retail property specialization, Mr. Pollock has personally consummated more than 1,000 retail lease and sale transactions.

One of Mr. Pollock's gifts is his ability to re-position failing properties. An example of his abilities would be the Ramada West Hollywood, a 175 room hotel-anchored mixed-use project in the heart of West Hollywood. As late as four years after completion of the project, the properties' ownership was still unable to affect a successful leasing program for the retail portion of the project. Combining creative marketing strategies, a knowledge of successful tenant mix, and his established tenant relations, Mr. Pollock created a retail component now considered the center of attraction for this neighborhood, securing many national and regional chain tenants, and achieving record rents for this area. The project now maintains a waiting list for upcoming vacancies. A sampling of sale transactions for Mr. Pollock include:
